Please note

Mountain weather, landslides and road closures can delay or change the route, sometimes by days. The Uttarakhand government may require registration and can halt the yatra. Walks of 6 km at Yamunotri and 16–18 km each way at Kedarnath, so a good level of fitness is needed; Uttarakhand government medical support is available along the route; horses, palki and helicopters are at your own cost and not guaranteed.

This yatra is planned with care, but its programme may change. Darshan timings are set by temple trusts; weather, crowds, road and rail conditions or orders of authorities may change the order of visits, timings, hotels or meals at short notice. Hotels, food and transport are arranged with partners and may be replaced with others of a similar standard. Photos are indicative. No medical staff travel with the group; medical help is available on call. Booking is under our Booking Terms at madhavyatri.com.

How to book: pay the booking amount online on the yatra page at madhavyatri.com (UPI, cards or net banking, through the HDFC Bank payment gateway), or WhatsApp 87792 48181 / call 70455 81812 and the yatra coordinator will help you. Office hours: Monday to Friday 10 am to 6 pm, Saturday and Sunday 10 am to 2 pm.
